EDO Alert! Have you got your Community Litigants Handbook?
If not, there are still copies available

For those willing to take the journey, this book offers a comprehensive step-by-step guide and invaluable advice on how to challenge development in the Queensland Planning and Environment Court. It details such subjects as when and how to commence a court action, and the costs and risks of litigation. Taking you through the whole legal process, the book covers everything from how to file the right documents, to appearing and presenting evidence in the Planning and Environment Court in Queensland. Packed with tips, easy-to-follow checklists and example court documents, The Community Litigants Handbook is an invaluable tool for running your own appeal.

The Community Litigants Handbook is $30 and all proceeds are used for public interest environmental law. The book is available direct from the Environmental Defenders Office of Northern Queensland ("EDONQ"). You can obtain a copy either by contacting us by telephone on (07) 4031 4766, or by visiting our website: www.edo.org.au/edonq

For further information please contact EDONQ on (07) 4031 4766 or via email edonq@edo.org.au.
