Objects of the Environmental Defenders Office of Northern Queensland Inc. ("EDO-NQ")

The objects of EDO-NQ are:

- 2.1 To empower the community to protect the environment through law and through use of the legal process recognising:
  - (a) the suffering, distress and disempowerment that result from environmental harm and an inability to obtain legal advice, assistance and representation in relation to it;
  - (b) the importance of public participation in environmental decision making to achieve environmental protection;
  - (c) the importance of fostering close links with the community and ensuring the association is responsive to community needs;
  - (d) the importance of indigenous involvement in protection of the environment.
- 2.2 To undertake research for the purpose of ascertaining the needs of the community for legal assistance in environmental matters and the most effective way of meeting these needs.
- 2.3 To provide legal representation, advice and information to those who are otherwise unable to afford it, in connection with the conservation, protection and enhancement of the environment.
- 2.4 To provide community educational programs in matters relating to environmental law and environmental policy.
- 2.5 To undertake law reform activities contributing to the conservation, protection and enhancement of the environment.
- 2.6 To publicise the existence of the organisation and its objects.
- 2.7 To establish a public fund known as the 'Environmental Defender's Office of Northern Queensland Tax Deductible Donations Fund', (hereafter called the 'Donations Fund'), under the rules of the Association for the specific purposes set out in Rules 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5 and 2.6 which complies with section 78AB of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.
