

PLANNING LAW WORKSHOPS

Major changes to NSW's planning and development legislation, the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act, were passed in June 2008. In two evening workshops, EDO solicitors will explain the changes to professionals, community groups and members of the public.

The following topics will be covered:

- Plan-making
- Development assessment
- Exempt and complying development
- Private certification
- Community infrastructure contributions
- Remaining appeal rights
- A proposal for what the Act should look like
