

Environmental Law Toolkit - NSW

A Community Guide to Environmental Law in NSW

Environmental Defender's Office

This well established book, written primarily for community groups, covers the NSW law on:

- environmental planning and assessment;
- natural resource management;
- pollution management;
- biodiversity conservation; and
- natural and cultural heritage.

The guide also includes a chapter on environmental advocacy, covering the following topics:

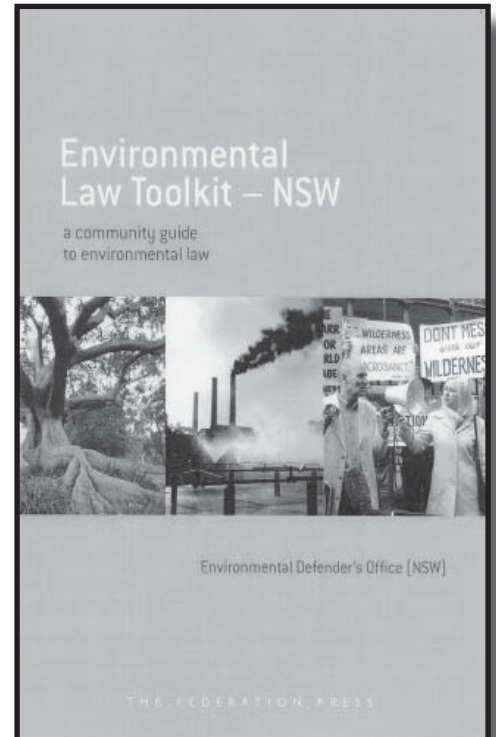

- submissions, letters and petitions;
- using the media;
- access to information;
- defamation law and safe speech;
- incorporating an environmental group;
- corporations and environmental advocacy;
- environmental protest and criminal law; and
- seeking legal advice and representation.

Environmental Law Toolkit (NSW) is an invaluable resource ... The complexity [of the modern world], whilst daunting, can be successfully negotiated by having access to accurate and comprehensive information geared to the public interest. Here is where the Environmental Law Toolkit (NSW) comes into play, use it well.
